

Activities Of Society

By JEAN ELIOT.

THE Vice President and Mrs. Marshall returned this morning from Old Point Comfort, Va., where they spent the week-end. At the end of this week they will go to White Sulphur Springs, Va., for a few days.

Major General Tanaka, the Japanese army officer visiting Washington, entertained at a dinner last night at the Portland in honor of the Japanese Ambassador and Viscountess Chinda. The other guests included the members of the embassy staff and Prof. Ninagwa, who is making the trip with the general. In the afternoon the general made calls on the various members of the Japanese embassy, and lunched with Mr. Matsouka, second secretary of the embassy.

W. P. G. Harding, of Birmingham, Ala., and his three daughters, the Misses Harding, have arrived in Washington and have taken an apartment in the Highlands. Mr. Harding has been appointed as a member of the new Federal Reserve Board.

Senator Atlee Pomerene is spending a day or two at his home in Ohio. Mrs. Pomerene will remain in Washington until Congress adjourns.

Mrs. A. E. Matlock has sent out cards announcing the marriage of her daughter, Mrs. Alwilda Matlock Rousseau, to James O. Matlock on Thursday, July 2, at San Antonio, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Matlock are at home at 819 Quitman street, Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

Miss Flora Wilson entertained delightfully at a dinner last night at Dower House in compliment to the Speaker of the House and Mrs. Champ Clark and Miss Genevieve Clark. The party started about 4 o'clock in motors, and the dinner was served on the lawn.

Miss Anna Montgomery, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emilie Montgomery, has gone to the White Sulphur Springs to pass the remainder of the summer with the Chief Justice and Mrs. Edward Douglas White, who have a cottage for the season.
